

WOMEN OF THE YEAR NOMINATION

It has been a Business Professional Women Englewood/Venice tradition to honor one of our members the third week in October, which is National Business Women's Week, for her accomplishments in our organization, achievement in her work field, and for her service in the community in which she lives.

You, and the member you nominate for this honor, must be members in good standing with BPWEV and BPW Florida. You may only nominate one person. We will vote for our Woman of the Year in September and October. We will present our Woman of the Year at our October meeting. Nomination must be received no later than August 21, 2015.
